"I appreciate the high level of response and insightful questions asked during the Webinar, which will help credit unions remain informed on the most current safety and soundness issues, including effective risk assessment, planning, and due diligence relating to third party vendors, which we addressed throughout this online discussion." stated Board Member Hyland.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that regulates, charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, also operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF), insuring the deposits of over 85 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions.
