NCUA Issues Prohibition Orders

Alexandria, Va., July 8, 2008 – The National Credit Union Administration Board has issued orders prohibiting the following individuals from participating in the affairs of any federally insured financial institution.

Anita Hubert, a former loan manager at Community Choice Federal Credit Union, Indianapolis, Indiana, consented to a prohibition order, without admitting or denying fault, to avoid the time and cost of litigation.

Anne M. Massey, a former teller at Simpson Community Credit Union, Shelton, Washington, was found guilty of theft and sentenced to serve 18 months in prison and ordered to pay $3,970 in restitution.

Patricia A. Russell, a former loan officer and Visa coordinator for First Kingsport Credit Union, Kingsport, Tennessee, consented to a prohibition order, without admitting or denying fault, to avoid the time and cost of litigation.

NCUA enforcement orders are online at click here, and may be inspected at NCUA's Office of General Counsel between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Copies may be ordered by mail from NCUA, 1775 Duke St., Alexandria, Va. 22314-3428.

Violation of a prohibition order is a felony offense punishable by imprisonment and a fine of up to $1 million.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the savings of over 86 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions.
