Agenda Announced For 75th Anniversary Symposium

Alexandria, Va., April 15, 2009 – National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board Member Gigi Hyland announced the agenda for the Symposium marking the 75th Anniversary of the Federal Credit Union Act. The program will be held June 9 and 10, 2009, at the Hyatt Regency Washington D.C. on Capitol Hill.

The free, two-day event will celebrate 75 years of federal credit union history while providing a forum to discuss the future of federal credit unions in the 21st century. The keynote speaker is Representative Paul Kanjorski. In addition, Operation HOPE Founder, Chairman and CEO John Hope Bryant has been invited to give a luncheon address.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, operates the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF), insuring the savings of 89 million members in all federal credit unions and the vast majority of state-chartered credit unions. NCUA is supported by credit unions, not federal tax dollars.
