Fryzel Welcomes Minnesota Credit Union Network to NCUA

September 28, 2009, Alexandria, D.C. – National Credit Union Administration Board Member Michael E. Fryzel, encouraged continued dialogue with NCUA as he welcomed representatives from the Minnesota Credit Union Network to NCUA headquarters in Alexandria.

“By coming to Washington and conveying your message, you perform an extremely important service” Fryzel told the delegation. “I appreciate your open dialogue with NCUA regarding key issues. We are always open to new programs that will help credit union members.”

The Minnesota Credit Union Network is a statewide organization that serves and supports the needs and interests of credit unions throughout Minnesota. The network works on behalf of Minnesota’s 156 credit unions and more than 1.5 million credit union members.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that regulates charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, also operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of nearly 90 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions.
