Fryzel Visits Great Lakes Credit Union

October 1, 2009, Alexandria, D.C. – National Credit Union Administration Board Member Michael E. Fryzel recently visited Great Lakes Credit Union in North Chicago, Illinois.

Fryzel toured the credit union and discussed credit union issues with Great Lakes CEO, Vikki Kaiser.

“I enjoy the opportunity to meet with credit union leaders at their place of business and see firsthand the type of service they are providing.” Fryzel stated. “It is encouraging to see the efforts being made to meet the financial needs of their members.”

Great Lakes Credit Union has assets of $595 million and serves individuals living and working in Lake and McHenry counties in Illinois and Kenosha County in Wisconsin as well as 105 select employee groups.

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that regulates charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, also operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of nearly 90 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions.
