NCUA Chairman Matz' Town Hall Webinar Now Available Online

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (Oct. 23, 2012) – NCUA Board Chairman Debbie Matz' recent town hall webinar is now available online, the agency announced today.

“We had a very good, wide-ranging discussion during the webinar, which is exactly what we want from these events,” Chairman Matz said. “I appreciated the participants taking time from busy schedules to attend, and I think those who were not able to join us will get value from being able to access the recording. I look forward to talking with you again at our next webinar.”

During the webinar, Chairman Matz presented updates on several issue areas, including:

- Credit union industry performance
- NCUA's low-income credit union eligibility initiative
- NCUA's Regulatory Modernization Initiative
- The corporate credit union resolution
- The new Office of National Examinations and Supervision
- Recently finalized and proposed rules

More than 1,000 participants joined the 90-minute webinar. An archived audio recording and a written transcript of the webinar are now publicly available on NCUA's website at <http://www.ncua.gov/News/Videos/Pages/default.aspx>.
