

Money Smart

Offered by: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and
U.S. Department of Labor

Target Credit

Union Participants: Adults outside the financial mainstream

Program Objective:

1. Enhance money skills and create positive banking relationships.
2. Help fight predatory lending.
3. Encourage financial institutions to identify untapped markets.
4. Assist consumer in shaping their financial future.

Credit Union

Eligibility: Available to financial institutions and other organizations that offer financial education.

Program Features
And Requirements: Financial education curricular available in four formats:

- * Money Smart for Adults: instructor-led curriculum on CD-ROM.
- * Money Smart for Young Adults: instructor-led curriculum for ages 12—20 on CD-ROM.
- * Money Smart Computer-Based: self-paced curriculum for ages 13 and over.
- * Money Smart Podcast Network: a portable audio (MP3) version.

Formats available in various languages.

Program Cost: Free

Contact: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
Attn: Money Smart Order Desk, PA-1730-7070B
550 17th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20429
Voice mailbox: (202) 942-3404
Facsimile: (202) 942-3098
Website: www.fdic.gov/consumers/consumer/moneysmart

Disclaimer of Liability:

The NCUA has tried to ensure that the information provided on this site is current however; you are encouraged to contact a Partner directly to ensure there has been no change in reported program requirements and to ensure the suitability of information, products, and processes for your organization. With respect to information available from this site, neither the NCUA nor any of its employees, makes any warranty, express or implied, including the warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, or assumes any legal liability or responsibility for the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of any information, product, or process disclosed.